Pre-2008

Previous experience in Indigenous education and environmental research includes serving as a Researcher on the ATEP e-learning project (2008) and Acting Manager of the Four Directions Student Centre (2006–2007) at Queen's University. I have also supported projects in Special Education within First Nations classrooms and the Aboriginal Teacher Education Program (2000–2003, Queen's Faculty of Education). Additionally, I contributed to the VOICES project at OISE/UT (1997–1998) under Dr. Judy Iseke, focusing on Indigenous knowledge and representation. My early field research with Rio Algom's Elliot Lake Operations (1986, 1987) concentrated on limnology and RA-226 monitoring.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Indigenous knowledge and science education
- Self-study of professional practice
- Autoethnographic and anticolonial research methodologies
